Notice is hereby given that all persons claiming the same or knowing or having anything to say why the same should not be forfeited pursuant to the prayer of said complaint, must file their claim in accordance with Rule G from the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions with the Clerk of the Court, in Room 120, United States Court House, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, by 2002 which is 30 days after the last publication of this action or within such additional time as may be allowed by the Court, and must serve their answers within 20 days after the filing of their claims, or default and forfeiture will be ordered. Any person with an interest in the property may also wish to file a petition for remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, as provided for in Title 28, Code of Federal regulations, and failure to file such a petition may affect any rights that a person claiming an interest in the property may have with respect to this property.

FOR NOTICE OF PUBLICATIONS GO TO: WWW.FORFEITURE.GOV

On December 1, 2006, Rule G of the Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims, part of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, became effective. This new rule now governs procedures for civil and criminal asset forfeiture actions in the federal courts.

Notice of judicial forfeiture actions has traditionally been published in newspapers. The new rule now permits publication of forfeiture notices on a government internet site (www.forfeiture.gov), and this site incorporates these forfeiture notices that have been traditionally published in newspapers.

This site is currently fully operational, civil and criminal forfeiture notices will continue to be published in newspapers for a period of time before newspaper publication is eventually abandoned in favor of this website. The website contains a comprehensive list of pending notices of both civil and criminal forfeiture actions in United States District Courts around the country.
